Nutrition Education Options

APLA Health will provide the following options to complete the nutrition education portion of the NOLP enrollment. Client's participation in one of the following activities one time each year will fulfill the nutrition education requirement for NOLP enrollment. Other options to acquire nutrition paperwork are listed below. The Nutrition requirement may be completed anytime during the time period of March 1, 2018 to February 28, 2019, but must be completed to enroll or re-enroll.

Nutrition Education Options offered monthly or quarterly: Nutrition classes in English and Spanish language.

- The Basics: overview of programs at APLA: public benefits, residential, behavioral health services, client-line, nutrition, food pantry, etc.
- Eat Well, Be Well Classes; topics such as HIV & aging, diabetes, cholesterol, blood pressure, weight management, food & water safety, nutrition facts label, oral health, bone health, omega 3's, probiotics, sugar substitutes and more.
- What's Cookin at NOLP; a food demonstration using food provided by NOLP
- 1:1 individual nutrition appointment

At the conclusion of the nutrition education event, client receives a "confirmation form" as proof of attendance. This form is submitted with the other enrollment documents at the time of enrollment.

Other options to get the nutrition education confirmation

- Meet with the dietitian, doctor, physician assistant, nurse practitioner or nurse at your medical facility for nutrition education or assessment. The reviewer can use the NOLP Nutrition form or their agency form. Submitted paperwork must include the date of the review or class attended, client's name and signature, client goals, the agencies name, and printed name, signature and credentials of the reviewer. The nutrition review date must be dated on or after March 1, 2018.
- Bring a copy of the reviewed and signed document to NOLP with your other eligibility paperwork.

Paperwork necessary to enroll into NOLP. Proof of income and residence needs to be dated within March 1, 2018- February 28, 2019 time frame:
